

China Sage Consultants

insight, execution, results

Does your China business have you feeling overwhelmed?
Relax, we have you covered.

Why Choose China Sage Consultants

Since 2003, we have managed China sales and biz dev campaigns for a large number of American and European companies. In doing so, we've dealt with just about every type of Chinese business situation and person imaginable. Our gained knowledge, China savvy, and operational skills are invaluable to our clients.

We continue to extend our capabilities to help western clients with sales and business support needs in China. And, unlike other firms, our sales management projects put us in the China game every day. Engage us and trust we'll provide all the facts and in-depth insights you require to do the right things for your business. We'll even help manage many of your sales and business activities. Visit us to learn more.
