Character Deep Dive

Knowing who you're dealing with is critical. But in China, it seems western businesses either neglect character or are unable to assess it effectively. With our Character Deep Dive, we've got you covered. Having dealt with characters in China for a very long time, we can easily identify both the good and bad ones, and then steer you straight. Deep Dive is included with all TrueView DD packages.

Full-service packages

Why China Sage Consultants

Since 2003, we have been managing China sales and marketing campaigns for a multitude of American and European client companies. In doing so, we have dealt with just about every type of Chinese business situation and person imaginable. Our resulting knowledge, savvy and operational skill have become invaluable to our clients.

With our unique China perspective, it was natural for us to apply our capabilities to assist western companies and private equity firms with their due diligence needs in China. Unlike many other firms, our core business has us in the China game everyday; so when you engage us, trust we will provide all the key facts and deeper insights you need to make the right decisions for your business.
